

PRESENTS

Brunch & Boxing

Inaugural Fundraiser Event

We are thrilled to invite you to join us for a delightful brunch event hosted by The Agoge Project in collaboration with Chef Lyle of Baltimore! This promises to be an occasion full of great flavors and community spirit, all while supporting our program and its incredible youth. During our special brunch and even our boxing portion, talented youth will be taking the lead in every aspect. From cooking to service, and even presentations, become part of the journey as they showcase their skills and dedication. Celebrate the achievements of our youth and the impact of The Agoge Project on their lives!

OBJECTIVE

To encourage community support and engagement with a remarkable youth-centric organization by merging Baltimore's love for Brunch with the thrill of boxing. The Agoge Project is dedicated to cultivating self-empowerment, discipline, academic excellence, and a sense of community among our youth.

WHAT DOES BECOMING A SPONSOR MEAN?

Choosing a sponsorship package means aiding our participants in their journey of self discovery by providing them access to the resources that they need to be great! We are located in the Bel-Air/Edison neighborhood of Baltimore, MD and have been a nonprofit organization since 2017. The Agoge Project is attributed to incredible achievements of over 50 participants. As a crucial role in our success, passionately, we invite you to join our purpose by choosing a benefits package.

SNAPSHOT OF 2023-2024*

Improved School Attendance:

Students maintaining a 90% attendance rate or better 2023-24 school year, opposed to 50% from the previous year

Academic & Athletic Scholarships:

As a result of their commitment and hard work, 2 of our 8th grade participants have recently been accepted into 2 of Baltimore's Top rated Private High Schools. Both on an Academic Scholarship, in addition to Wrestling for participants, and Lacrosse for the other. Through our community partners, we are very proud to be able to send them to these schools, at no cost to their families!

Health Management Success:

80% of participants are showcasing significant progress in their health and well-being.

Wrestling Program Engagement:

Our partnership with Middle River Rec's Wrestling program has willfully engaged our youth in a valuable sport; while opening doors to potential scholarship opportunities with Archbishop Curley as early as the 2023 academic year!

Enhanced Self-Esteem and Confidence:

Of the population we serve, 86.7% are experiencing continued positive changes in their mental health and self-esteem. In asking the youth from the program, some stated that they feel the most confident in themselves and their abilities since joining our program. While others have been noticeably making a significant positive change in their overall mental health and self-esteem. Due in part, to the transformative power of your ongoing investment into the well-being of our kids and their future. A tremendous win and a testament to our mission!

Diverse Workshops:

Our youth have participated in an array of fundamental workshops to include, wellness, health & nutrition, and financial literacy. They have gone the extra mile to learn general contracting, gardening, graphic & web design, engineering, and cooking. These workshops have taught them leadership in addition to mindfulness, all while promoting confidence in life skills!

OUR MISSION

The Agoge Project (TAP) is a Baltimore-based non-profit organization using Boxing and Martial Arts as a vehicle to cultivate self-empowerment, discipline, academic excellence, and a sense of community in our youth.

OUR VISION

The Agoge Project's vision is for each and every student who comes through our doors to leave with a skill set to not only become good at whatever they set their minds to, but to cultivate the community around them to be able to do the same.
